

Summer Reading Information

for students entering Grade 2

Students are required to read a minimum of three books over the summer. One of the books can be read to them. At least one of the required books should come from the selections listed below.

Students are required to write a letter about one of the books they read. For extra credit, students can read and write letters for as many books as they would like.

Choose any 3 of these books or a book that isn't on the list. They are in order of difficulty starting with easier ones and getting gradually harder. You can order these books from Amazon or get them from your local library. It is great to get a library card over the summer and make going to the library a summer activity. There your child can choose a few books each week to read.

In addition to this summer reading, please have your child go on the website called:
numberock.com/video-library

This site is great because it has all kinds of music for all kinds of math topics for different ages. Children learn so much through song! They will love the songs and learn the topics while singing.

Prodigygame.com

This website is also something I recommend over the summer. Parents can sign up for free and your child will enjoy doing the activities while learning math!

Have a terrific summer but remember to stay connected to both reading and math so you will be very ready for 2nd grade.
